

THE MOST HOLY BODY and BLOOD of CHRIST

June 22nd, 2014

Thank you dear volunteers and members of Saint Nicholas Catholic Church for all of your efforts and involvement with the Chicken Cookout. An event like this is very important on many levels for our parish community. It is a time to have fun, a time to enjoy some excellent chicken, a time to get to know each other better and forge lifelong friendships, and it is a time to meet and once again invite visitors to become active members of the parish and intentional disciples of Jesus Christ.

Maybe you saw someone that you haven't seen in a while and a seed has been planted in your heart that this is a person to invite to church and to active involvement in the parish. This missionary spirit is not on the periphery of our identity as Christians, it is central. The Church is missionary by nature and an event like the Chicken Cookout allows us to open our doors to invite our neighbors into a living relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church.

Even if people are in a situation in which they cannot receive the Eucharist, for example if they are in an invalid marriage, they are still welcome in church and can receive a blessing. We will take people where they are at and work with them to draw them into full communion with Jesus Christ and His Church. The message they need to hear is that we love them and we can help them.

We are called to participate fully in the Holy Eucharist, hence the great Solemnity of Corpus Christi we celebrate today, and as Christians we are called to help our neighbors fully participate in the Holy Eucharist. No matter how close or far they may be from God at this point in time, we love them and will take them 'where they are at' and walk with them to an active, living relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. Just like Jesus takes us where we are at as people in need of personal conversion and inner transformation and slowly but surely makes us holy.

The Chicken Cookout, in addition to being an impressive community gathering, is a tool for us to fulfill our critical role of being missionaries for Jesus Christ and His Church.

Thank you to all of our volunteers, you did a fantastic job!

Make sure to see the garden in its June glory. Some of the early blooming plants are already fading but the peony as well as others are ready to really show some color. The planting is complete for now until tulips and mums are added in the fall. For a more complete story on the garden and its plants pick up a copy of the gardens description in the back of church. So much to see right now so don't miss out on a visit and a time to reflect and pray. Jesus spent a lot of time praying in gardens. How about you?
